As no additional information is being submitted beyond the preliminary amendment filed herewith to correct reference to Figure 1, Applicants submit no petition is required. However, in the event a petition is required, a conditional petition fee of $130.00 is filed concurrently herewith for consideration. If such petition is charged, it is believed the submission was complete as of the time of filing the application and this petition fee should be refunded upon determination the item was complete at the time of filing.
